

Proposed Right to Addiction Recovery (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to enable people addicted to drugs and/or alcohol to access the necessary addiction treatment they require.

The consultation runs from 7 October 2021 to 12 January 2022.

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response. We would welcome comments on any experience you have had of accessing, or trying to access, addiction treatment.

I've never personally had to access any addiction services but have seen first hand the struggles people have with it. I'm also studying mental health nursing and can again see first hand the impact that not enough services or the strict rules of accessing these services can have on an individual

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

This Bill is a huge step in the right direction and I believe it is needed to allow the progression of addiction services allowing for a more holistic approach in the treatment of addiction

Q3. How do you think the right to treatment established in the Bill would be most effectively implemented and enforced? Tick all options that apply.

Duty on Scottish Ministers

Duty on Health Boards

Duty on Integration Joint Boards (IJB's)

Established targets/standards

Requirement for the Scottish Government to report progress on duty

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I believe that the Bill hold all in power to account. It would ensure that those with addiction are seen as an individual and helped in a similar way to those requiring support for a variety of other reasons. It puts onus not solely on the local authority but instead begins there with a chain of events leading through the political chain

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of creating a specific complaints procedure, in addition to the existing NHS complaints procedure?

Fully supportive

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view of allowing those suffering from addiction to choose a preferred treatment option, and for them to receive that option unless deemed harmful by a medical professional?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response. We would welcome suggestions about how this could work in practice.

When someone is sick and needing treatment their views are fully taken into account unless they are incapacitated. The same respect and dignity should be allowed to someone suffering with addiction. They must be included in the care and treatment plan allowing for a better overall outcome for the individual

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill seeking to prevent treatment being refused?

Fully supportive

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill seeking to prevent treatment being refused?

Please explain the reasons for your response. We would welcome suggestions about how this could work in practice.

I don't understand any reason for treatment to be refused. If someone is requesting help then it should be made available. Again we treat and care for those with medical afflictions ie cancer patients, obesity etc so why refuse help to someone with suffering addiction. It is an illness like all others but the help is not readily available and at times denied. This should not be allowed to continue

Q7. Which of the following best expresses your view of requiring the Scottish Government to establish a national funding scheme?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Many of the addiction services that are available at the minute are charity run and don't always have available to help the increasing number of service users. The NHS services are there however limited but there should be more done to try and tackle the issue so I fully support the idea of national funding for the benefit of addiction services

Financial Implications

Q8. Taking into account all those likely to be affected (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc), is the proposed Bill likely to lead to:

don't know

Please indicate where you would expect the impact identified to fall (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc). You may also wish to suggest ways in which the aims of the Bill could be delivered more cost-effectively.

I'm not entirely sure how the proposed Bill will impact on costs

Equalities

Q9. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response. Where any negative impacts are identified, you may also wish to suggest ways in which these could be minimised or avoided.

In passing this Bill we are moving towards a more inclusive way of treating those with addiction rather than potentially breaching the Equality Act (2010). The discrimination that addicts face daily will likely reduce as they will be able to get the help they need when it's they need it

Sustainability

Q10. In terms of assessing the proposed Bill's potential impact on sustainable development, you may wish to consider how it relates to the following principles:

- living within environmental limits
- ensuring a strong, healthy and just society
- achieving a sustainable economy
- promoting effective, participative systems of governance
- ensuring policy is developed on the basis of strong scientific evidence.

With these principles in mind, do you consider that the Bill can be delivered sustainably?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I believe that all of the above is achievable and that it will lead to a much more inclusive society for all.

General

Q11. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

No Response
