

Proposed Right to Addiction Recovery (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to enable people addicted to drugs and/or alcohol to access the necessary addiction treatment they require.

The consultation runs from 7 October 2021 to 12 January 2022.

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill?

Unsure

Q2. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

We have to remove criminality from dependence and treat as an addicted illness. I am a business owner and the cost of theft from our business is driven solely by addicted individuals looking to make quick money

Q3. How do you think the right to treatment established in the Bill would be most effectively implemented and enforced? Tick all options that apply.

Duty on Health Boards

Other (For example Local Authorities - please specify below).

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Each council and health board should be accountable but this needs a joined up thinking to make it effective. Removing punishment and where custodial sentences occur we need to be sending these people for treatment first and then to a prison environment where it isn't easier to get drugs

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of creating a specific complaints procedure, in addition to the existing NHS complaints procedure?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response. We would welcome comments on any experience you have had with the existing NHS complaints procedure.

Junkies don't make complaints, politicians do and this is a more serious subject than points scoring at FMQ's

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view of allowing those suffering from addiction to choose a preferred treatment option, and for them to receive that option unless deemed harmful by a medical professional?

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response. We would welcome suggestions about how this could work in practice.

This should be a clinical choice

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill seeking to prevent treatment being refused?

Partially supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response. We would welcome suggestions about how this could work in practice.

Care and treatment should not have to be conditional but methadone isn't a treatment it's just a drug company dependency

Q7. Which of the following best expresses your view of requiring the Scottish Government to establish a national funding scheme?

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response.

With drugs policy not devolved the Scottish government can only do so much. I welcome the lord advocates statements on class A drug possession but what good is that if there is still not treatment to support

Financial Implications

Q8. Taking into account all those likely to be affected (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc), is the proposed Bill likely to lead to:

don't know

Please indicate where you would expect the impact identified to fall (including public sector bodies, businesses and individuals etc). You may also wish to suggest ways in which the aims of the Bill could be delivered more cost-effectively.

The cost of locking someone up is high, putting them into an environment surrounded by criminals isn't the best way to go.

Equalities

Q9. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Neutral (neither positive nor negative)

Sustainability

Q10. In terms of assessing the proposed Bill's potential impact on sustainable development, you may wish to consider how it relates to the following principles:

- living within environmental limits
- ensuring a strong, healthy and just society
- achieving a sustainable economy
- promoting effective, participative systems of governance
- ensuring policy is developed on the basis of strong scientific evidence.

With these principles in mind, do you consider that the Bill can be delivered sustainably?

Unsure

General

Q11. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

Addiction isn't a tool for point scoring and perhaps this is a virtue signalling exercise shows that this isn't a serious attempt at a bill. We need to ensure addicts are treated with care and compassion.

Drug use is problematic and dangerous, the way to stop people turning to drugs is to make their lives better. Investing in the lives of our youngest so that poverty is not a driving factor for their disengagement from society
